

39 FESTIVAL FLAMENCO

JUNE 19-27, 2026

ALBURQUERQUE

Festival Flamenco Albuquerque 39

June 19 - 27, 2026

Albuquerque & Santa Fe, New Mexico

The longest-running flamenco festival outside of Spain

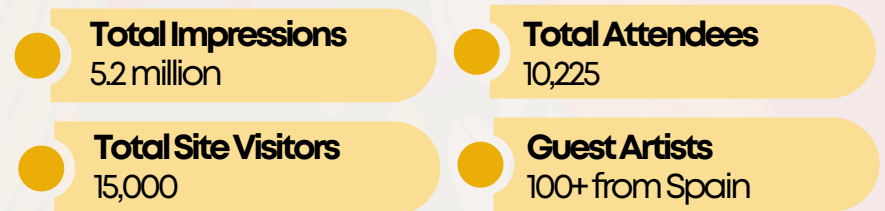

Festival Flamenco Albuquerque - now entering its 39th annual celebration - is the longest-running and one of the most prestigious flamenco festivals outside of Spain, drawing audiences from across the U.S. and the world to New Mexico's vibrant cultural scene. Set to take place June 19-27, 2026, the nine-day festival will feature an extensive lineup of performances, workshops, and community events that showcase flamenco's artistic depth, history, and global relevance. With dozens of professional performances, immersive workshops for dancers and musicians of all ages, late-night tablao shows, and special community gatherings, FFABQ transforms both Albuquerque and nearby Santa Fe into hubs of flamenco celebration and artistic exchange. For nearly four decades, Festival Flamenco Albuquerque has not only elevated world-class flamenco artists on stage but also enriched local cultural life and strengthened community through performance, education, and shared tradition!
